As part of its ongoing investigation into executive pay, the Oversight Committee asked Treasury Secretary Henry M. Paulson, Jr. and Federal Housing Finance Agency Director James Lockhart to provide documents related to severance compensation and other exit pay for Richard F. Syron and Daniel H. Mudd, the former CEOs of Freddie Mac and Fannie Mae.

Documents and Links

- Letter to Secretary Paulson
- Letter to James B. Lockhart III