The Committee held five days of hearings in 2000 on the topic of White House e-mails. Rep. Waxman's opening statements have attempted to put some of the issues explored at these hearings into their proper context, while rebutting many of the unsubstantiated allegations that have been made by the majority and others during the investigation.

Documents and Links

- Rep. Waxman's Sept. 26, 2000, Statement
- Rep. Waxman's March 23, 2000, Statement
- Rep. Waxman's March 30, 2000, Statement
- Rep. Waxman's May 4, 2000, Statement