In a letter to the Government Accountability Office, Chairman Waxman requests that GAO examine how the layers of analysis and review agencies must perform when issuing rules are affecting the agencies' ability to issue timely and effective rules.

Documents and Links

- Letter to Comptroller General David Walker