A series of reports prepared by the Special Investigations Division finds that the prices on prescription drugs offered by the new Medicare drug cards are far higher than discounted prices available in Canada or negotiated by the federal government, and little better than prices already available to seniors through internet pharmacies. Documents and Links

- Report: Medicare Drug Cards in Oregon's 3rd Congressional District
- Report: Medicare Drug Cards in New York's 7th Congressional District
- Report: Medicare Drug Cards in South Dakota
- Fact Sheet: Canadian and Federal Government Prices for Popular Drugs