Following renewed allegations of political interference in the Justice Department's case against the tobacco industry, Rep. Waxman requests documents and communications between the Department and the White House relating to the litigation. Documents and Links

- Letter to Attorney General Gonzales
- Justice Department Emails