Reports prepared by the Special Investigations Division analyze the local impact of the recent record 17% increase in Medicare premiums, the majority of which is directly attributable to provisions contained in the new Medicare law. Documents and Links

- Report: The Impact Of Medicare Premium Increases In Northern Maine