Two new GAO reports released by Rep. Waxman show that the Bush Administration failed in implementing and enforcing virtually every aspect of the Medicare drug card program, calling into question the ability of the Administration to oversee the vastly more complicated Medicare drug benefit. Documents and Links

- Letter to CMS
- GAO Report on CMS's Education of Beneficiaries
- GAO Report on CMS's Oversight of the Drug Discount Card