In a letter received last night, EPA provided no assurances that career experts have been tasked with preparing the necessary legal and technical documents needed to issue a decision regarding California's pending waiver request. Today Chairman Waxman released the following statement.

Documents and Links

- EPA Letter to Chairman Waxman
- Chairman Waxman's Statement
- Letter to Administrator Johnson