Today Rep. Henry A. Waxman and Sen. Edward M. Kennedy wrote to Comptroller General of the United States David Walker requesting an examination of the staffing, information technology, and other resources necessary for the Food and Drug Administration (FDA) to successfully carry out its oversight of foods, drugs, biologics, and medical devices.

Documents and Links

- Letter to Comptroller General David Walker
- Press Release: Waxman and Kennedy Request GAO Examination of FDA Resource Shortfalls