Rep. Waxman releases a report examining how the pending energy legislation would take away authority and funds from state and local governments, further concentrating power in Washington, D.C. Documents and Links

- Report: Energy Bill Would Preempt States and Localities