For two years, EPA repeatedly stated that an energy facility off of the California coast needed to meet Ventura County's clean air rules. Chairman Waxman requests the EPA analysis that formed the basis for the reversal of that position in June 2005. Documents and Links

- Letter to EPA Administrator Johnson