In a new report, GAO finds that sixteen years after Congress passed the 1990 Clean Air Act Amendments, EPA has failed to carry out many of the Act's requirements to protect Americans from cancer-causing toxic air pollution.

Documents and Links

- GAO Report: EPA Should Improve the Management of Its Air Toxics Program
- Press Release from Reps. Solis, Dingell, and Waxman