Rep. Waxman urges the CDC to reconsider a recent decision to cease monitoring local immunization rates among young children. Local immunization surveillance is an important aspect of ensuring that all children receive vaccinations. Documents and Links

- Rep. Waxman's Letter to Dr. Gerberding