New information from the International Atomic Energy Agency reveals that for over six crucial weeks in December and January the Administration withheld from the international agency important information about Iraq's purported attempts to obtain nuclear materials. Documents and Links

- Letter to President Bush
- IAEA Letter to Rep. Waxman
- State Dept. Letter to Rep. Waxman