Reps. Waxman and Dingell release two reports on Halliburton's work in Iraq. The first report, prepared by GAO, finds systematic problems in the planning, implementation, and oversight of Halliburton's contract to provide troop support services. The second report, by the minority staff, finds extensive overcharges in Halliburton's gasoline prices. Documents and Links

- GAO Report on Troop Support Contract
- Fact Sheet on Troop Support Contract
- Minority Staff Report on Gasoline Overcharges
- Press Release