This report for Rep. Tom Allen is an example of the reports prepared by the Special Investigations Division that compare human and animal drug prices. It finds that drug manufacturers charge twice as much for drugs when they are used to treat humans than they charge when the same drugs are used to treat animals. Documents and Links

- The Report
- Response to Industry Claims About the Report