One reason for the poor care received by many nursing home residents is insufficient staffing. In a series of reports for members, the Special Invesigations Division has found that many nursing homes do not have enough staff to meet staffing levels recommended by federal officials and nursing home experts. These reports also indicate that there is a connection between insufficient staffing and poor conditions in nursing homes. Documents and Links

- Report on Nursing Home Staffing Levels in 13th District of California
- Report on Nursing Home Staffing Levels in Chicago
- Report on Nursing Home Staffing Levels in Oklahoma