Rep. Waxman asks the Joint Commission on Accreditation of Healthcare Organizations and the Centers for Medicare and Medicaid Services to take greater steps to ensure that health care workers get their annual flu shots. Higher immunization rates among health care workers will not only keep them healthier, it will keep their patients healthier as well. Documents and Links

- Letter to Dr. Dennis O'Leary, President of the Joint Commission on Accreditation of Healthcare Organizations
- Letter to Dr. Mark McClellan, Administrator of the Centers for Medicare and Medicaid