One day after the Defense Contract Audit Agency announced it has referred Halliburton's gasoline contract to the Inspector General for investigation into potential wrongdoing, Rep. Waxman reveals new details about the unusual facts surrounding the decision to use Altanmia, an obscure Kuwaiti company, to import hundreds of millions of dollars worth of gasoline into Iraq at grossly inflated prices. Documents and Links

- Letter to NSA Rice