In a full Committee oversight hearing on the Presidential Records Act, four prominent historians criticized efforts by the Bush Administration to restrict access to presidential records. According to Dr. Stanley Kutler, "If his action stands, Bush will substantially shut down historical research of recent presidents." Documents and Links

- Rep. Waxman's Statement
- Witness List
- Testimony: Robert Dallek
- Testimony: Richard Reeves
- Testimony: Stanley Kutler
- Testimony: Joan Hoff