In a hearing on The Presidential Records Act, Rep. Waxman stated, "The Bush executive order, which changes the management of the Presidential Records Act, is seriously flawed. The order takes a law that was designed to make documents readily available to the public and establishes procedures that are designed to block access." Documents and Links

- Rep. Waxman's Statement