Rep. Waxman released a report that describes the efforts of tobacco industry attorneys to conceal information from the public. In particular, the report describes previously secret attorney-client documents from Liggett & Myers Tobacco Co. that show the central role played by industry lawyers in concealing health information. Documents and Links

- The Report