After the RNC informed the Oversight Committee that they will not be able to produce the e-mails requested by an April 18 deadline, Chairman Waxman requests that the RNC provide a timeline for producing the requested documents. He also asks what steps the RNC has taken to preserve and produce the emails, and which White House officials were provided with RNC email accounts. Documents and Links

- Letter to RNC General Counsel Robert Kelner
- RNC's Response to the Committee's Inquiry (April 18, 2007)