Washington D.C. (May 7, 2009) – Congressman Dennis Kucinich (D-OH), Chairman of the House Domestic Policy Subcommittee, yesterday sent a letter to AIG CEO, Edward Liddy, requesting documents and information regarding allegations by ProPublica, the Los Angeles Times, and ABC News that AIG inappropriately denied and delayed health insurance claims from civilian contractors killed or injured in Iraq.

The letter is attached below.

Documents and Links

- Chairman Kucinich's Letter to AIG