

“U.S. Contributions to the Response to Pakistan’s Humanitarian Crisis: The Situation and the Stakes”

On June 16, 2009, the Subcommittee on National Security and Foreign Affairs continued its extensive oversight of U.S. efforts in Afghanistan and Pakistan by conducting a hearing on the situation of the almost three million Internally Displaced Persons (IDPs) in Pakistan’s North West Frontier Province. The hearing featured witnesses from the International Crisis Group, Refugees International, and a member of the Pakistani National Assembly who is also a former member of the Pakistani Cabinet. Two of these witnesses testified live from Pakistan. The Subcommittee also received a briefing from the office of the United Nations High Commissioner for Refugees.
