

Rep. Waxman explains that the President's description of "quiet, steady progress" in Iraq's reconstruction is misleading and ignores the facts. Independent auditors confirm that billions of dollars have been squandered without increasing Iraq's oil or electricity production. Yet the Administration has done nothing to halt rampant waste, fraud, and abuse in Iraq. Documents and Links

- Rep. Waxman's Statement