

WASHINGTON – One week into his tenure as the Chairman of the Committee on Oversight and Government Reform, U.S. Representative Edolphus “Ed” Towns (D-NY), discussed his plans for the Committee at a panel discussion on the future of government oversight and investigations in the 111th Congress.

WHEN: Wednesday, Jan. 14, 2009

WHERE: The Willard InterContinental Hotel
The Pierce Room
1401 Pennsylvania Avenue NW
Washington, D.C. 20004

A downloadable copy of his full remarks is available below.

Documents and Links

- Towns Agenda Speech