

On Friday, December 4, 2009. Chairman Towns appeared on "The Federal Drive" show on Federal News Radio, 1500 AM to discuss recent legislation passed by the Committee that impacts the Federal Workforce. Chairman Towns talked with hosts Tom Temin and Jane Norris about the Domestic Partner Benefits and Obligations Act, which passed out of the Committee on November 18, 2009, and legislation Chairman Towns recently introduced to curb inadvertent file sharing of Federal documents on peer-to-peer networks.

Click here to listen to the interview.