

Reps. Waxman and Solis, along with Sen. Boxer, release an analysis of the new draft EPA rule, slated for proposal next month, would allow the systematic testing of pesticides on humans. The proposed rule fails to adopt key recommendations of the National Academy of Sciences and EPA's own advisory committee, and it includes loopholes that invite abuse. Documents and Links

- Flash Report: EPA Proposal Encourages Human Pesticide Experiments
- Background: Waxman-Boxer Report
- EPA Proposal
- EPA Memo on Ethical Concerns
- Rep. Waxman's Statement
- Rep. Solis' Statement