

In a letter to U.S. Trade Representative Schwab, Chairman Waxman and twenty-six other Members of Congress asked that in reviewing the global state of intellectual property rights the Ambassador act upon the United States' commitment to respecting measures that improve access to life-saving medicines in developing countries.

Documents and Links

- Letter to U.S. Trade Representative Schwab