

This week's HIV/AIDS Today factsheet focuses on male circumcision, a practice that studies have shown to be effective in reducing a man's risk of contracting HIV infection by more than 50%.

Documents and Links

- HIV/AIDS Today, Issue 18