

Citing the failure of the Consumer Product Safety Commission to protect children from hazardous levels of lead in consumer products, Rep. Waxman announces plans to introduce legislation to ban lead from toys, toy jewelry, and other items for children under age six. Documents and Links

- More on Lead Levels and Childrens' Products
- Press Release
- Bill Text