

Faced with continued White House intransigence, the Comptroller General wrote to the Vice President "to demand full and complete access" to the information, pursuant to 31 U.S.C. § 716. This represents only the 32nd time that GAO has issued a formal demand letter. By law, the Vice President had 20 days to respond to the letter. Documents and Links

- Letter from GAO to Vice President Cheney
- Press Release from Reps. Waxman and Dingell on the GAO Letter