

On September 29, 2004, the House will consider H.R. 3193 — legislation that would make it legal to carry fully loaded assault weapons and possess armor-piercing ammunition in the nation's capital city. Members of Congress, the D.C. City Council, and others have spoken out against the measure.

Documents and Links

- Letter to the President
- Fact Sheet
- Dear Colleague: Reps. Waxman and Tom Davis
- Dear Colleague: Reps. Norton and McCarthy
- Letter from the D.C. City Council
- Letter from the Violence Policy Center
- Dear Colleague: Rep. Conyers
- Dear Colleague: Rep. Norton on DC Businesses
- Dear Colleague: Rep. Waxman on Mayor Williams and Chief Ramsey
- Rep. Waxman's Statement