

An October 2004 report by the Congressional Research Service report identifies instances and situations where Presidential advisers have been called to testify before Congress. Documents and Links

- CRS Report: Presidential Advisers' Testimony Before Congressional Committees