

Current and former employees of the White House Security Office have reported to Chairman Waxman that there was a systemic failure at the White House to follow procedures for protecting classified information. According to the security officers, the White House regularly ignored security breaches, prevented security inspections of the West Wing, and condoned mismanagement of the White House Security Office. Documents and Links

- Letter to Former White House Chief of Staff Andrew Card Regarding New Evidence of Security Problems at the White House