

The nonpartisan Government Accountability Office released a report which found multiple deficiencies in the Army's oversight of contractors in Iraq, including "limited visibility over contractors," lack of "adequate contractor oversight personnel," and "little or no training on the use of contractors." Documents and Links

- GAO Report: Contractor Oversight
- Letter to General Benjamin S. Griffin