

In light of reports that the Administration is looking at short-term measures to address record-high gasoline prices, Reps. Waxman, Eshoo, Capps, Solis, and Lofgren write the President to call attention to California Governor Schwarzenegger's request for waiver of federal oxygenate requirements -- a step that could be taken immediately to reduce gasoline prices in the state. Documents and Links

- Letter to the President