

Six members wrote Health and Human Services Secretary Tommy Thompson with questions on the Administration's proposed changes to the medical privacy rule, including the creation of a broad loophole through which drug companies could access patient health records without patient permission. Documents and Links

- Letter to HHS
- HHS Report: Pages 1-50
- HHS Report: Pages 51-100
- HHS Report: Pages 101-150
- HHS Report: Pages 151-175