

Rep. Waxman sends follow up letters to HHS and CDC regarding CDC's inadequate response to his query about the HIV Compendium. The Compendium, a key compilation of evidence-based prevention measures, has not been updated since its 1999 release, although government experts have identified multiple new proven programs. Documents and Links

- Letter to HHS Secretary Leavitt
- Letter to CDC Director Gerberding
- CDC's Response to Rep. Waxman's Original Inquiry
- Secretary Leavitt's Response \(April 5, 2007\)