

Rep. Waxman has corresponded with White House Counsel Alberto Gonzales, Chairman Burton, and Karl Rove on fundraising and potential conflicts of interest. Documents and Links

- Letter from Alberto Gonzales: Refusing to provide additional information about Karl Rove's activities
- Letter to Alberto Gonzales: Requesting that Karl Rove's case be referred to the Justice Department
- Letter from Alberto Gonzales: Responding to Rep. Waxman's letters of June 15 and June 25, 2001
- Letter to Alberto Gonzales: Requesting copies of any conflict of interest waivers granted to Karl Rove
- Letter to Chairman Burton: Responding to the Chairman's letter regarding Karl Rove
- Letter to Chairman Burton: Regarding Karl Rove's involvement in a merger supported by Intel
- Letter to Karl Rove: Regarding his involvement in policy matters that potentially affect his stock holdings
- Letter to Chairman Burton: Regarding a Republican fundraising event at the Vice President's residence
- Letter to Chairman Burton: Regarding the use of Administration resources to assist Republican campaigns