

Rep. Waxman writes Environmental Protection Agency Administrator Christine Whitman expressing his concern that, at the behest of the pesticide industry, the Administrator was allowing human testing results to be used in the determination of pesticide toxicity. Rep. Waxman's letter requests that Administrator Whitman provide him with details on the use of these human testing results and the decision-making process that allowed their use. Documents and Links

- Letter to EPA