

Chairman Waxman writes to Secretary Kempthorne to question the Department of Interior's refusal to comply with the Energy Policy Act of 2005 requirement to study the effects of coal bed natural gas production on surface and ground water resources in six western states, and to insist that the Department comply with the law. Documents and Links

- Letter to Secretary Kempthorne